

Video figure Legend

The patient showed slow gait velocity and freezing before arrival at a narrowed entrance or in while walking on an originally designed, suddenly narrowed path (path A). The gait variability was resolved on a path that narrowed in a straight-line fashion (path B). We have received informed consent from the patient for publishing the video.