

Suppl. Fig. 1. Excluding from the statistical analysis 6 patients (triangles) that were not able to increase vitamin D levels between the first (t_0) and the second visit (t_1) in the AD Group, Pearson correlation shows a significant negative correlation between the vitamin D change and the SCORAD change ($r=-0.49$, $p=0.02$).