

Supplementary material

Clinical images per phenotype (Written informed consent to use the photos for publication was obtained from each patient.)

Conglobata type: Cysts and comedones on the neck and back of a male patient.

Scarring folliculitis: Icepick and boxcar scars with superficial pustules and nodules on the buttocks of a female patient.

Frictional furunculoid: Nodules and abscesses in extensive skinfolds exposed to friction in an obese patient.